ON THE COVER

Steel girders, erected to support the addition to the Carl A. Rudisill Library, frame buildings which the photographer feels are indicative of three important eras of Lenoir Rhyne's life. The Yoder Building (1913), center, is a visible link with the founding decades; the Rhyne Memorial Building (1927), left, suggests continuing and dedicated strength; and the Minges Science Building (1959), right, projects the modern image and future planning, not only with facilities but in academic thinking.

On The Campus

Dr. Cromer Chosen Outstanding Alumnus

Lenoir Rhyne College alumni picked the president of their Alma Mater, Dr. Voigt R. Cromer, as the institution's outstanding alumnus and presented the award to him before 400 alumni and guests attending the annual Alumni Banquet on May 28.

The Rev. Paul L. Morgan of Greensboro, president of the 10,000-member alumni association, made the presentation, citing the president's role in Christian higher education regionally and nationally.

Cromer, a 1925 graduate of Lenoir Rhyne, has served as president of Lenoir Rhyne since 1949. During the period he has also served as president of the North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges, the Council of Church-Related Colleges of North Carolina, the Conference of Church-Related Colleges of the South, and the National Lutheran Educational Conference.

He is the seventh Lenoir Rhyne alumnus to receive the annual award. Other holders are Clarence Stasavich of Greenville, football coach; Dr. Karl C. Garrison of Norfolk, Va., educator and author; Dr. W. K. Mauney of Kings Mountain, industrialist; Miss Maud Powlas of Barber, retired missionary to Japan; Dr. Karl Z. Morgan of Oak Ridge, Tenn., physicist; and Robert L. Clemmer, architect.

Alumni President Morgan also presented two Distinguished Service Awards during the banquet. The North Carolina Synod of the Lutheran Church in America, which owns and operates Lenoir Rhyne, was recognized for establishing a $150,000 professorship at the college during the past year. The Piedmont Educational Foundation was honored on its 20th anniversary for its annual $25,000 scholarship support of the institution.

Receiving the church award was the president of the synod, the Rev. George R. Whittecar, D.D., of Salisbury. Charles A. White of Hickory, president, accepted the award on behalf of the foundation.

Freed Heads Class

Miss Alix Ann Freed of Metuchen, N. J., was named first honor student and winner of the Scholarship medal during the Lenoir Rhyne College 75th commencement exercise held in the P. E. Monroe Auditorium. The award is given each year to the graduating senior who has gained the highest academic average during her college career.

Miss Freed received the medal after the commencement speaker, Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, professor of philosophy at Earlham College, told graduates that judgment is one of the most precious of all things, and civilization is really built upon a sensitized, advanced integrity of judgment.

"One purpose of a college," he said, "is to make the students realize that their lives are always lives in which they themselves are deciding what kind of people they will be."

Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America, delivered the baccalaureate address on Sunday before graduation.

Miss Brenda Jean Herman of Claremont was named second-honor student with an average slightly less than that of Miss Freed.

Miss Freed, a member of Mu Sigma Epsilon honorary scholastic society, served as news editor of the college newspaper, was a member of Iota Epsilon Omega journalistic society, and served as treasurer of Sigma Kappa social sorority. She is listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Miss Herman served as a campus guide, served on the student commission, and was a member of Mu Sigma Epsilon honorary scholastic society and Chi Beta Phi science fraternity.

Miss Barbara Elizabeth Bernhardt of Cherryville was named winner of the Freshman medal during the commencement exercise.

The medal is awarded each year to the freshman selected by the faculty of the college as the most outstanding representative of the class in scholarship, in participation in college activities, in strength of character, and in general conduct and attitude.

Alumni Make Changes

Lenoir Rhyne alumni approved four changes in the Alumni Association constitution and by-laws when they held their annual meeting at the college May 28.

The changes, proposed by the Board of Directors, revamp the procedure for electing the three top officers of the association and increase the membership of the board from 12 to 18.

They also specify that each director represent a consecutive group of alumni classes and authorize the president to appoint the nominating committee.

The recommendations were approved during the annual meeting at the Alumni Banquet on Alumni Day. Over 400 alumni and guests were present.

President Paul L. Morgan of Greensboro presided over the banquet and the business session.

Under the proposed election procedure adopted by the alumni, the three top officers (president, first vice president, second vice president) will be elected next year on a single ballot. The nominating committee will pick three nominees for president; in the association balloting, the one receiving the highest number of votes will become president, the one receiving the next highest number will become first vice president, and the third will become second vice president.

Increasing the membership of the board from 12 to 18 will, according to the action taken by the alumni, also lengthen the term of the directors. At present, the board is composed of two groups of six directors, each group serving a two-year term. In the future, however, the board will be composed of three groups of six directors, each group serving a three-year term.

In another by-law change, the alumni voted a procedure which insures that the board of directors includes representatives from alumni groups of different ages.

It asks that each of the six seats filled each year be assigned to a group of consecutive alumni classes so that the total board membership is representative of all alumni age levels.

The amendment, as do all other changes, becomes effective with the current alumni year and means that next spring one director will be elected from the classes of 1931 and earlier, one from the classes of 1932-1940, one from the classes of 1941-48, one from the classes of 1949-55, one from the classes of 1956-61, and one from the classes of 1962-66.

A similar plan of distribution of alumni director seats resulted in the elections last spring because it was recommended by the board to the nominating committee. The procedure was not used at the time because of any by-law or constitutional requirement, however.

The by-law change authorizing the president of the association to appoint the nominating committee was recommended by the body which in the past had that power—the board of directors. The process of appointment has usually been waived by the board in the past and fell on the shoulders of the president anyway.

NEW LEADERS in the Lenoir Rhyne Alumni Association as a result of annual elections in the spring were presented to members of the association during the Alumni Banquet at the college May 28. The four officers are pictured in the foreground: Tom White of Cherryville, first vice president; Mrs. Jane Lohr Golden of Charlotte, secretary-treasurer; the Rev. Paul L. Morgan of Greensboro, president; and the Rev. Brady Faggart of Concord, second vice president. Behind the officers are five of the six newly-elected directors: David C. Wright, Jr. of Greensboro, George H. Mauney of Kings Mountain, Lewis B. Carpenter of Charlotte, Bill L. Nail of Cherryville, and Clarence Pugh of Woodruff, S. C. Not pictured is Lloyd Little of Shelby. The officers will serve for one year, the directors for two years.

Judge Farthing Named

Judge James C. Farthing of Lenoir, Superior Court Judge for the 25th Judicial District, has been named chairman of the Loyalty Fund for the 1966-67 year.

Judge Farthing, a 1936 graduate of Lenoir Rhyne, will head a ten-member committee which will seek $75,000 from alumni and other friends of the college to meet the operational costs of the institution.

Other members are Albert Allran, James C. Barker, Don Bumgarner, Dr. Glenn R. Frye and Tom Reese of Hickory; Hugh Moretz and Jesse C. Sigmon, Jr. of Newton; Lewis B. Carpenter of Charlotte; Klynt Ripple of Lexington; and Ed Schenk of Greensboro.

The Lenoir native received his bachelor of laws degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and has practiced law since 1938.

He became solicitor of Caldwell County Recorder's Court in 1940 and served in that position until he entered the U. S. Navy in 1942. Following the war he served for ten years as solicitor of the 16th North Carolina Solicitorial District before assuming his present position in 1957.

Judge Farthing is active in church, civic and professional activities. His leadership positions include former chairman of the official board of the First Methodist Church in Lenoir, present international counsellor and former district governor of Lions International, past president of the 25th Judicial District Bar Association, and a member of the board of trustees of the Consolidated University of North Carolina.

He is married to the former Miss Olivia Gillespie of Columbia, S. C. They have one son and three daughters.

Program Is Available

The 1966 Alumni Banquet Program, "Dedication," which pays tribute to the college's 75th anniversary by focusing on personalities who have played leading roles in the history of Lenoir Rhyne, is available for showing by interested alumni and college friends.

The 35-minute slide-tape program is a montage of historical flashbacks saluting faculty and staff personnel who have served the college for 20 years or more.

Three Hickoryites, Mrs. Don Stafford, Mrs. Harry Snyder, Jr., and Dr. Robin F. Gatwood, are the director, writer, and producer-technical director, respectively.

The Rev. Paul L. Conrad of Statesville and Charles Deal of Conover are narrators of the program.

The program may be reserved by writing the Office of Public Relations and Alumni Affairs.

College Gets Grants

The U. S. Office of Education has approved a $25,000 grant for Lenoir Rhyne College to use in purchasing laboratory and other special equipment and materials.

President Voigt R. Cromer explained that every department of instruction and each student would benefit by the improvements the grant will make possible.

The National Science Foundation made still another grant, amounting to $4,000, to the chemistry department which will enable that department to embark on an intensified program to provide more experiments of a research nature for introductory chemistry courses and at the same time will encourage more chemistry majors to participate in research.

Harry S. Livengood, college business manager, said that both grants were matching fund gifts, requiring the college to supply $29,000.

To Retire From Staff

Prof. G. R. Patterson, head of the education department and director of the summer school at Lenoir Rhyne College, will relinquish those duties in September to devote his full time to teaching at Lenoir Rhyne.

The veteran educator has served in both administrative positions since coming to Lenoir Rhyne 41 years ago. During the period, he has also taught courses in his department and (for 24 years) in the economics department.

Dr. W. Clyde Taylor, a professor in the education department, will succeed Prof. Patterson as department head. The duties of the director of summer school will be transferred to the office of the academic dean, Dr. Raymond Bost, who assumed duties recently.

In retiring from administrative work, Prof. Patterson will be joined by a close colleague, Dr. E. L. Setzler, whose retirement as academic dean in July has been previously announced. Dr. Setzler will also continue on the faculty as a professor, in the English department. Both men joined the Lenoir Rhyne faculty and staff in 1925, both have formed the core of academic administrative leadership for more than 40 years, and both shared the same office for most of those years.

In another administrative change, Chaplain Robert G. Walker resigned to accept the position of Southeastern Regional Director of the National Lutheran Campus Ministry. He lives in Chapel Hill. His successor has not been named.

LOYALTY FUND SETS RECORDS

A record number of alumni (1,431) gave a record amount ($44,970) to Lenoir Rhyne through the 1965-66 Loyalty Fund which ended on June 30.

The campaign, led by Loyalty Fund Chairman James C. Barker of Hickory, also resulted in the Loyalty Fund history's highest average gift ($31.43).

The percentage of alumni giving to the fund (13.7) was the second highest in the history of the fund but was not enough to top the 16.5 per cent mark set in 1962.

The previous record for number of donors was 1,069, set in 1962. The previous records for total dollars ($21,242) and highest average gift ($28.47) were both set in 1965.

In addition to the 1,431 alumni, 178 other friends of the College contributed to the Loyalty Fund.
